District One Supervisor Bert Courrege, who successfully petitioned the Hancock Democratic Executive Committee to conduct in two precincts another runoff election in a race he recently lost to Robert Peterson Jr., advised the supervisors to make sure all registration forms are properly completed by citizens.

Courrege said he found that 'in the many voter registration forms had not been properly completed.

Walter Gex, board attorney, said the County Election Commission is responsible for updating and maintaining voter rolls.

JAIL PROPOSITION

In another election matter, the supervisors unimously voted to place a prosition on the Hancock Nov. 8 general election ballot asking citizens to approve or reject a county plan to issue $2.5 million in bonds to build a new County Jail and levy 'a tax' to pay for the construction.

Public forums set for jail facility

Four Public Forums are scheduled for this month on a proposed criminal justice facility for Hancock County.

A $2.5 million bond issue is to appear on the ballot in the Nov. 8 General Election for the construction of a new jail in Hancock County.

Members of the Jail Committee appointed by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland are sheeduled to appear at the various forums to answer questions submitted by the public.

Terry Feeney, committee chairman, said at a meeting of the group Thursday, two locations for the public nave already been confirmed at Waveland Elementary School. The other two public forums are being scheduled the next week for Pearlington, and North Hancock County.

The tentative location for the Oct. 25 forum is Charles B. Murphy School; and Oct. 27, Hancock North Central School,

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors adopted the necessary resolution to place the bond issue on the ballot on Thursday. In late August the county leaders accepted the final plan recommended by the Criminal Justice Facility Committee, submitted by Fred Wagner, architect.

Wagner and New Orleans architect

N.C. Curtis were hired by the supervisors to submit a plan for a new criminal justice facility and work with the committee.

The jail committee was selected after a Januray Grand Jury , like numerous ones in the past, recommended the construction of a new jail to replace the out-dated jail built in the mid-30's now eing used by the county.

A letter is being prepared to be mailed to the many civic and veterans organizations in the county to request time for a member of the committe to appear on a program.

Feeney said, "This will enable the members of the organizations to ask questions about the proposed new jail and conditions of the out-dated facility now in use."

"We are hoping many people will attend these public meetings, so they can gain first hand knowledge of the problems of the county in regards to the jail," Fenney added.

ROBERT B. PETERSON, JR. AND FAMILY

Would like to take this opportunity to thank the residents of Waveland for the warm reception in your homes during the spedcial election campaign. At a cost to the taxpayers of several thousand dollars let us all hope this is the final time.

I have attempted to personally discuss the issues and problems confronting all of the residents of Waveland and Beat 1. Your interest and concern indicated to me an overwhelming response with an unquestioned victory this coming Tuesday October 4, 1983.

Clearly the time for change in our district is now. My commitment to you is to be a full-time supervisor with a policy of open communication for all residents.

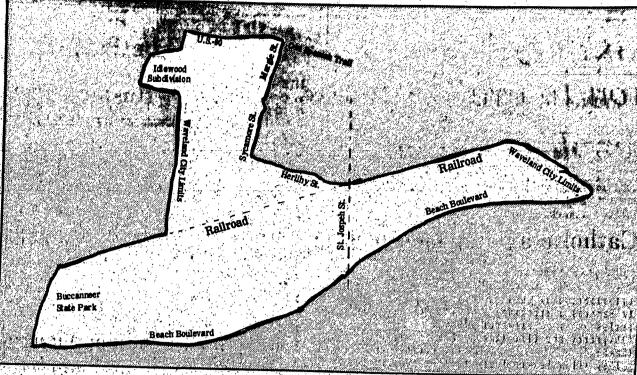

The "Beat 1 Supervisor's Report" will be made available to all residents of the district quarterly each year. In this way information about activities in Beat 1 will be current and not offered as a surprise at the end of each four year term.

Your support at the polls on this coming Tuesday October the 4th is deeply appreciated. It will mark the beginning of a new and progressive era in Beat.

Thank you,

ROBERT B- PETERS

We hope parents will inform their children of the importance of following traffic regulations, especially teenagers who will soon be licensed to drive motor vehicles.

We know police officers take valuable time going to the various schools and explaining the traffic regulations, but we guess some youngsters do not want too, or are just to igornant to learn.

This incident happens quite frequently around the streets of our cities. Maybe police should take bikes away from traffic violators for a few days, this might get their attention.

One of our subscribers who frequently walks down Main Street made an interesting comment to us Friday morning while we were on our way to the post office.

We are hoping everyone qualified to vote in the named precincts will cast a ballot.

So urge all of your friends and neighbors to get out and vote if they are qualified for either of the two precincts.

Be sure to vote Tuesday.

At present (1980) Hancock County has a population of 24,537. According to research data this shows an increase of 41 percent between 1970 and 1980. There is a definite need for a new criminal

FAMILY HEALTH MONTH

Fall is the time of year when people go back to school, change jobs, move to another city, or prepare for the cold months ahead. It is also a time to pay particular attention to health.

Governor William Winter has proclaimed October as "Family Health Month" in Mississippi to call attention to the individual's responsibility for personal health.

The American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors, has designated October, the first full month of autumn, as a time of special emphasis to help people focus on their families' health. Mississippi family doctors are encouraging people to take a close look at their families' eating habits, physical fitness, mental health and possible hazards in their homes. Americans are being urged to establish a "partnership for, health" with a family doctor because he or she can provide total health care on a continuing basis. The focus of Family Health Month is on preventive as well as curative medicine, and education of parents and families in ways to stay well and The Mississippi Academy of Family

Physicians has 628 members in practice throughout the state. The University of Mississippi department of Family Medicine trains medical school graduates in the specialty of family medicine. Each year, approximately 10 new family physicians complete the three-year training program and go into practice in Mississippi. The family doctors of Mississippi and the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports join to recognize October as Family Health Month in order to help families focus on the physical and mental health.

Governor William Winter has pro-claimed October 2-8, 1963, Hips the Handicapped Week in Mississippi, joining a national effort to draw public attention to the accomplishments, the needs, and the potentials of dissibled people.

Hancock North Central exploded for a total of 38 points at Hawk Stadium Friday night, scoring in every quarter to whitewash the East Central Hornets before a capacity homecoming crowd. Backs Lydell Curry and Mark Jackson devoured the real estate for totals of 124 and 110 yards, respectively, amassing 234 yards between them for the bulk of a team rushing total of 279 yards.

Curry carried 15 times and Jackson nine as they led the Hawk 41-try ground attack.

Quarterback Scott Favre completed 10 of 14 passes for a total of 161 yards, with junior quarterback Melton Lewis adding an additional 16 yards through the air to give the Hawks a passing total of 177

HNC head coach Irvin Favre described that total offensive effort of 456 yards, including 15 first downs as

"Anytime your offensive game runs more than 300 yards you're having a good night," stated the jubilant coach following his team's third Deep South Conference victory.

"Our biggest problem Friday night was penalties—we probably would have had a total offense of over 700 yards otherwise," he speculated.

The Hawks were penalized some 165 yards on 12 calls which, in addition, nullified several long gains including a 25-yard run by Curry into the Hronet endzone.

Included in Curry's 124-yard rushing total were three touchdown runs. A 36-yard dash midway through the first quarter gave the Hawks first shot at the scoreboard.

Tight end Gary Fricke took in three of five attempts from Favre for a total of 53 yards, including a nine-yard touchdown reception late in the second period.

Fricke's score brought the Hawks to their 18-0 halftime lead after Favre was sacked in a two-point conversion attempt.

Sophomore tailback Stanley Jordan completed the Hancock touchdown bonanza in the opening seconds of the final period when he returned an intercepted Hornet aerial some 44 yards for a touchdown.

Sophmore fullback Drew Malley closed off the scoreboard action for the evening with a successful point after kick, concluding the 1983 Hancock North Central Homecoming story with a final chapter entitled 'Hawks-38; Hornets-0.'

Stone won the game, 14-12, which was played on a cool but clear fall evening at the College—Perkinston Campus stadium.

The first half was primarily an offensive game with the returning into a grueling defensive battle.

The Tomcats came on strong in the opening minutes of the game when Stone player Kyle Ainsworth intercepted a pass by Pirate Quarterback Joey Rogers intended for Pass Wide Out Mark Boyd.

Deep in Pirate territory on the 20-yard-line and on Stone's first down, Tomcat Mark Crockrum scampered through a big hole in the left side of the line to score six within the first two minutes of the game.

In the following first down play, Crockrum took the ball, broke free from a host of maining portion of the contest Pirate linemen and rambled down field for Stone's final touchdown.

Candlelight vows join Boos, Jackson

Paula Lynn Jackson length full sleeves. The gently dirndl skirts. They carried beige fashioned with Victorian Joseph Boos in a .7:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony September 10 at the First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis with Rev. Nathan Barber and ficiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jackson of Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Boos of Bay St. Louis.

Gothic and spiral candelabra flanked by arrangements of fugi poms, peach carnations, cussion and button mums along with palm greenery decorated the sanctuary. Ivory satin bows and greenery adorned the candles lining the center aisle and candle arrangements decorated the windows.

Nuptial music was provided by organist Gail Carr and vocalist Robin Dossett.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory chiffon featuring Victorian styling with yoke of English net decorated with venise lace and outlined with a ruffle of Wedgewood lace. Tiny tucks graced the bodice and elbow

The fitted waistline was sashed with a Rev. Lambert Stack of bow at the back. Her waltz length veil of illusion was held in place by a wreath of silk and lace florets enhanced by petals of chiffon with satin ribbons at the back.

> She carried a cascade of vory roses, peach sweetheart roses, baby's breath and plumosa feiri with ivory lace and satin ribbon streamers.

Yvonne Griffith of Fairfax, Va. attended her sister as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Helen Jackson of Tallulah, La., sister-in-law of the bride; Dinah Courrege of Chalmette, La., cousin of the bride; Lisa Boos of Gulfport, sister-in-law of the groom: Pammiejane Schengrund of Wall, N.J., cousin of the bride; and Mary Klein of Clermont Harbor, sister of the groom.

The attendants were attired in formal gowns of peach tissue taffeta with full ruffled portrait necklines adorned with self roses, puffed sleeves, cumberbund waistlines and breath and plumosa fern.

Anne Courrege Lakeshore, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Misty Jackson of Tallulah, La., niece of the bride, was flower girl. They wore ankle length pale peach dresses with puffed sleeves and ivory lace trim, and carried wicker baskets of ivory and peach silk blossoms. Wreaths of baby's breath encircled their hair.

Jeff Boos of Gulfport served his brother as best man.

Groomsmen were Jerry Boos Jr. of Bay St. Louis. brother of the groom; Glenn Jackson of Tallulah, La., brother of the bride; Frank Klein of Clermont Harbor, brother-in-law of the groom; Mike Prendergast of Bay St. Louis; and Philip Garcia of Clermont Harbor, brother-inlaw of the groom.

Jason Garcia, nephew of the groom, and Wesley Griffith of Fairfax, Va., nephew of the bride, were junior groomsman and ring bearer, respectively. Ushers were Byron Griffith Fairfax, Va., and Mike Roth of Slidell, La.

Mrs. Jackson choose for her daughter's wedding a formal chiffon gown of soft, peachy yoke, long, full sleeves and flared skirt.

The mother of the groom was attired in a gown of green chiffon featuring a ruffled V-neckline, long tapered sleeves and flared skirt.

A reception followed at the American Legion Hall in Waveland. Mrs. Betty Brockman, aunt of the bride, assisted at this event. For traveling to Daytona

"I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

-John 10:10

By SHAWN MURPHY

"In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil...He was the greatest man among all the people of the East...Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on the earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil."

-(Job 1:1,3,8) Who was the greatest man to live in either the patriarchal age or under the law, with the obvious exception of Jesus? Abraham? Noah? Moses? David? John the baptizer?

A strong case could be made for all of these men and others as well. But for a moment consider God's servant Job.

Of the first chapter's description, the eighth verse is most attractive, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on the earth like him..." 🕯

Wow! What a distinction? Can you imagine this? You wake up on a Sunday morning. You sit down at the table, open up the newspaper and on the headlines it says, "Shawn Murphy (insert your name), named as greatest disciple in all the world, by the Lord God Himself!" Can you imagine walking into church that morning?

Well, this distinction was given Job by the Lord Himself! What a tribute!

But the real test of a man is in the hard times? Who is Lord said: Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I will depart. The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; may the name of the Lord be praised." (Job 1:20,21)

Yea, but the Lord didn't actually afflict him personally, you might say.

Another few days passes. "So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head. Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes. His wife said to him, "Are you still holding on to your integrity? Curse God and die!"

He replies, 'You are talking like a foolish woman. Shall we accept good from God and not trouble?' In all this Job did not sin in what he said."

Perhaps the real lesson for us to learn here is not what was the greatest man to ever live, but rather, how are we reacting to adversity in our

When we lose a very dear loved one, will we indict God and charge him foolishly or will we trust in our Lord and give him our heartfelt worship? When cancer strikes your family as it has mine, five times in the last 20 years will you turn your back on the one who gave His only Son so that you wouldn't have to be
